

Management Quality Statement

1. The company will work to provide its clients with professional, high-tech, advanced services
2. The company will always strive to improve work procedures, and will allocate the required resource to do so
3. The company will maintain excellence and reliability when providing solutions, while being on schedule
4. The company will work to keep its products and services at top quality while always improving its processes
5. The management and employees will aspire to make the company flourish and develop while maintaining other goals
6. The company will make sure that proper work environment exists and will apply a policy which will enable employees to share their experience and capabilities and influence work processes
7. The company will qualify all employees with advanced studies and in-house teaching of relevant subjects so that they can achieve the quality and reliability goals the company has defined

Aharon Feifelstein - CEO